Chinese New Year Celebration

A huge thank you to our wonderful volunteers from Hwa Chong Institution for bringing the festive spirit to 30 of our seniors during a heartwarming Chinese New Year celebration on 14 January.

From crafting beautiful Angbao lanterns to testing their wits in Spot the Difference, Guess the Riddle, and Finish the Phrase, our seniors enjoyed an afternoon filled with laughter, engagement, and meaningful connections.

Empowering Working Women: Wellness Talk at HTX

On 15 January, we conducted a Wellness Talk on the Multiple Roles of Working Women for 50 staff at HTX, led by Ms Crystal Lee, an experienced Registered Nurse and caregiver with 20 years in nursing and 27 years of caregiving.

Crystal shared practical strategies on managing stress, setting boundaries, and integrating self-care into daily routines. She also emphasised the importance of strong support systems both at home and in the workplace.

The session sparked meaningful discussions on work-life balance, equipping attendees with actionable insights to navigate their multiple roles with confidence.

If your company is interested in hosting a corporate lunch talk, we'd love to collaborate! Reach out to us at contact@cwa.org.sg.

Celebrating Our Seniors' Commitment to Health

Our amazing seniors have shown dedication to their health by completing the Centre Kiosk Health Challenge. For four weeks straight, they diligently measured their vitals, including blood pressure and heart rate, at the kiosk 4 times per week.

Why is this important?

Early Detection: Regular vital checks help spot potential health issues before they escalate.

Better Health Management: Monitoring key indicators like blood pressure and heart rate empowers seniors to take charge of their well-being. Building Healthy Habits: Routine checks make health tracking second nature, promoting active ageing and longevity.

Let's continue to make health a priority and encourage seniors around us to stay active and well.

Chinese New Year Arts & Craft

On 18 January, 18 seniors enjoyed a fun-filled Chinese New Year themed arts & craft session organised by volunteers from Singapore Polytechnic Buddhist Society.

They got creative by crafting adorable fabric oranges and expressing their artistic flair with salt painting. The session ended with a lively game of "Toss The Ball," where each senior passed a small paper ball around, sharing cherished moments that recently brought them joy

DBS Community Pop-up Market

On 18 January, 54 of our seniors had a wonderful time at the DBS Community Pop-Up Market at ACJC, where they received free groceries and experienced the generosity of a caring community.

This thoughtful initiative provided much-needed support to our seniors, helping to ease their daily expenses while fostering a spirit of giving. Seeing smiles on their faces reminded us of the power of community and kindness.
