Caregiving Week 2025

The 10th edition of Caregiving Week (15–21 September 2025) concluded with over 1,000 participants, 60 partners and sponsors, and 90 volunteers rallying together under the theme “A Lifeline for Seniors.” The week saw the launch of CareJourney, a structured pathway of support for caregivers of seniors with stroke and dementia, and the release of the Home-based Monitoring White Paper, highlighting how technology and timely human support can keep vulnerable seniors safe at home.

At the culminating Caregiving Fest 2025 in Sengkang Grand Mall, participants enjoyed performances, eco-themed workshops, and the immersive “My Life Behind the Door” exhibition.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to all our partners, sponsors, and volunteers — your support made this milestone year possible. Together, we continue to strengthen lifelines for seniors and caregivers.

Clay-making Workshop

As part of SG60 celebrations, seniors at CWA took part in a clay-making workshop themed "Our Community: SG60 and Beyond." They crafted pieces inspired by Singapore's culture and heritage, using colours and shapes to reflect their aspirations and dreams for the nation. The sessions not only tapped into their creativity but also gave them a meaningful way to express their love for Singapore, resulting in heartfelt artworks that embody the SG60 community spirit.

Batik Painting (AREU x NTUC U Care)

On 16 September 2025, AREU and NTUC U Care brought joy to our seniors through a meaningful CSR programme at CWA. The event saw 24 beneficiaries, 16 volunteers, and AREU EXCO leaders coming together for a fun-filled day of batik painting, lunch, and bingo.

We also extend our heartfelt thanks to their Management Partner, AdrenalinXperience, for volunteering alongside us and sponsoring Ruyi Oil for the seniors' goodie bags. Their support made the day extra special.
